Youth Glide New Zealand

YGNZ Code of Conduct

This Code provides clear direction on what we value and states key principles to guide our behaviour and decisions during our time at a YGNZ organised event. It is your responsibility to exercise good judgement and if necessary, obtain guidance from senior club / camp staff.

- Operate safely, responsibly and reliably
- Act with integrity, honesty and transparency
- Protect our people, property and information
- Treat people fairly and with respect
- Comply with the law
- Have fun

Following the Code

Most of the Code is common sense and in most situations it is clear how to behave. However, if you're faced with a difficult decision or situation, ask yourself:

- Is it legal and ethical?
- What can go wrong and am I taking unjustified risk?
- Does it comply with our standard operating procedures?
- Can I explain it to family, friends and fellow pilots?
- Is it fun for all involved?
- Will I be comfortable if it appears in the media?

Accepting and Agreeing to the Code

I _____ accept and agree to follow the Code as outlined above. I understand that should I fail to follow the Code, I may be required to leave the camp. I agree that I will remain liable for any expenses/costs I have incurred during my time at the camp.
